Their There They're Practice

1. Do you know where ________________ going?
2. Are they doing ________________ homework?
3. ________________ was a bee on the soda can.
4. I'm going to ________________ house for dinner.
5. ________________ helping ________________ mom with the cleaning.
6. I wanted to put the piano ________________ in the corner.
8. ________________ going to have a hard time leaving the park.
9. ________________ cat is seventeen years old.
10. She wanted ________________ party to be fun.
11. ________________ is a girl in my scout troop named Amanda.
12. ________________ driving me home after the basketball game.
Its It's Practice

1. I know ____________ late, but I still want to read.
2. Have you seen ____________ eyes?
3. ____________ been a long day.
4. ____________ whiskers were black.
5. Sometimes I know when ____________ going to rain.
6. ____________ great to hear you're feeling better.
7. Do you know ____________ name?
8. I think there's a wound on ____________ back.
9. I know ____________ been a long time since you've seen her, but I bet you'll recognize her immediately.
10. You'll know when ____________ the right time.
11. Not only is the frame bent, but ____________ front tire is flat.
12. ____________ a shame ____________ lens cracked.
13. She told me ____________ the last time that will ever happen.
Their There They're Practice

1. Do you know where ___ they're ___ going?
2. Are they doing ___ their ___ homework?
3. There ___ was a bee on the soda can.
4. I'm going to ___ their ___ house for dinner.
5. They're ___ helping ___ their ___ mom with the cleaning.
6. I wanted to put the piano ___ there ___ in the corner.
7. I knew ___ their ___ aunt.
8. They're ___ going to have a hard time leaving the park.
9. Their ___ cat is seventeen years old.
10. She wanted ___ their ___ party to be fun.
11. There ___ is a girl in my scout troop named Amanda.
12. They're ___ driving me home after the basketball game.

Copyright © 2014 by Liesl at the Homeschool Den
1. I know it's late, but I still want to read.

2. Have you seen its eyes?

3. It's been a long day.

4. Its whiskers were black.

5. Sometimes I know when it's going to rain.

6. It's great to hear you're feeling better.

7. Do you know its name?

8. I think there's a wound on its back.

9. I know it's been a long time since you've seen her, but I bet you'll recognize her immediately.

10. You'll know when it's the right time.

11. Not only is the frame bent, but its front tire is flat.

12. It's a shame its lens cracked.

13. She told me it's the last time that will ever happen.