

Egyptian Gods and Goddesses

Worksheet Set

Made by Liesl at TheHomeschoolDen

The following illustrations were made by Liesl:

Anubis

Ra

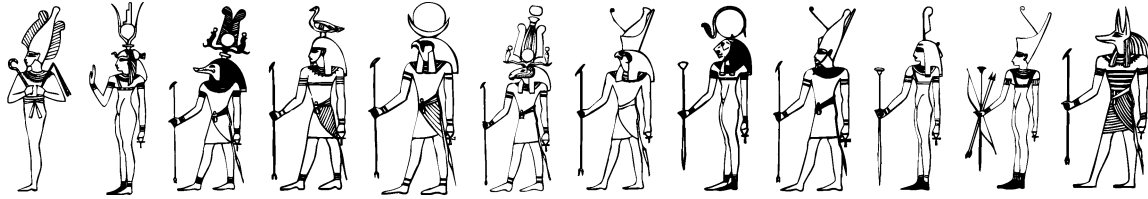

Isis

Osiris

Teachers and educators are free to make copies of these worksheets for themselves, their students, or their classrooms, but you may not distribute the file itself to others or use the illustrations for other purposes unless you have express permission.

Egyptian Gods and Goddesses

Ra

Goddess of the Home: She was credited for teaching the crafts of spinning, weaving and other household skills. She was also mourner and protector of the dead.

Osiris

God of Life: He was a weakling child, but grew up to be a full grown warrior god, who attacked and defeated Set.

Isis

God of the Dead: He was Osiris's second son. His job was to prepare the dead for their journey to eternal life, conduct funerals and accompany them to their tombs.

Set

God of Desert: He was the god of the desert. He had red, flaming eyes and red hair. Red was the color of evil to the ancient Egyptians.

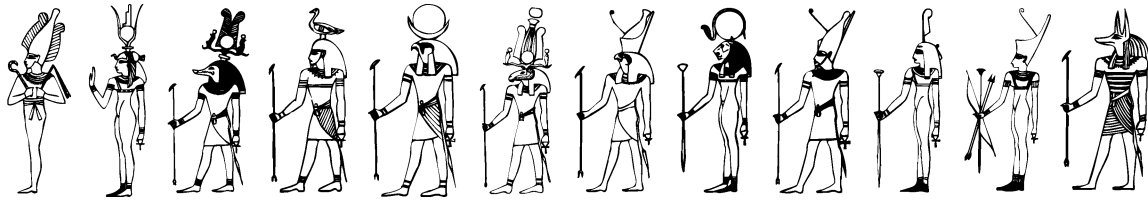

Horus

God of all Creation: In Lower Egypt - the sun god- was the most powerful god in the universe. He sailed through the sky in a boat. When He sailed under the world, the darkness of night followed, but Ra always returned.

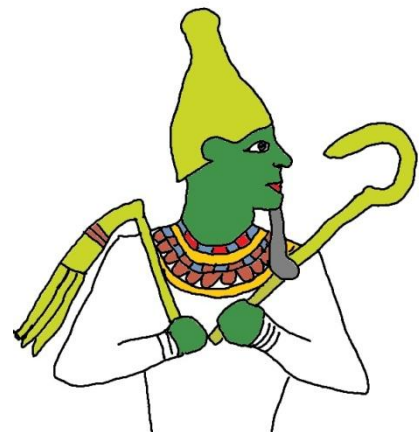

Anubis

God of Underworld This god traveled throughout Egypt teaching the people how to farm and build cities and temples. He civilized Egypt. He married his sister and was murdered by his jealous brother, Set. He was brought back to life, but preferred to return to the world of the dead.

Egyptian Gods and Goddesses

Identify the following:

Egyptian Gods and Goddesses

Ra-God of All Creation

Osiris-God of the Underworld

Isis-Goddess of the Home

Set-God of the Desert

Horus-God of Life

Anubis-God of the Dead

Anubis

Ra

Isis

Osiris