

Grammar: Lay, Lie

Lay: to put something down	Lie: to recline
Present/Today: lay, lays Past/Yesterday: laid is laying had laid	Present/Today: lie, lies Past/Yesterday: lay is lying had lain

1. When she comes in the house she _____ the mail on the kitchen table.
2. The dog is _____ in her doggie bed.
3. When she had the flu she _____ in bed all day.
4. Ted _____ the book on the counter.
5. We wondered if the cat had _____ on the porch swing all day because she was there when we left to do errands in the morning.
6. I found the envelope _____ in a mud puddle.
7. She is _____ the bag on the chair.
8. The kitten is _____ in the sunshine.
9. Mom says I shouldn't _____ around in bed all day.
10. The chicken _____ an egg yesterday.
11. Please don't _____ your wet towel on the chair.
12. Janet _____ on the bed and cried.
13. The book had _____ on the table all week.
14. I wanted to _____ on the beach, but I had to work.

Grammar: Peace, Piece

Peace:

Piece:

1. I really want a _____ of pie.
2. Martin Luther King, Jr. won the Nobel _____ Prize.
3. After WWII, the whole world was ready for _____.
4. Grab a _____ of paper, please.
5. When I bumped into my Lego castle, it fell into _____.

Grammar: Medal, Metal

Medal:

Metal:

1. Steel and iron are both made of _____.
2. Mike stood on the podium to receive his _____.
3. You can't put _____ like aluminum in the microwave.
4. Gabby Douglas won the gold _____ in the individual all-around.
5. I received a _____ for running the 5-K Turkey Trot.
6. Mercury is the only liquid _____ at room temperature.

Grammar: Desert, Dessert

Desert:

Dessert:

1. Sometimes the temperature reaches 120 degrees in the _____.
2. I wanted two scoops of ice cream for _____.
3. How many soldiers _____ during the cold winter at Valley Forge?
4. I want at least two cookies for _____.
5. The Sahara is the world's hottest _____.

Grammar: Farther, Further

Farther:

A physical distance

Further:

Figurative or metaphorical distance

1. I ran _____ than I ever had before.
2. How much _____ do we have to go?
3. After _____ consideration, I have decided to increase your allowance.
4. Which is _____ from here, Missouri or California?
5. Do you have anything _____ you would like to add to the conversation?

Grammar: Accept, Except

Accept:

Except:

1. I would like to _____ this award on behalf of my brother.
2. He wanted to go _____ his car broke down.
3. The computer would not _____ her password.
4. She likes most every fruit _____ bananas.
5. I wonder if they _____ credit cards.
6. Everyone was at the meeting _____ David.

Word Definitions

Peace: Contentment or the absence of war	Piece: A unit or portion
---	-------------------------------------

Medal: An award	Metal: Element with a shiny surface such as iron, aluminum, copper, etc.
----------------------------	---

Desert: A hot, dry, arid region To abandon or defect To leave behind	Dessert: The final course of a meal, often a sweet food.
---	---

Farther: A physical distance	Further: Figurative or metaphorical distance
---	---

Accept: To take something that is offered or to agree to something	Except: But, leaving out, omitting
---	---